

Further reading

- IWRAW Asia Pacific 2010, Participation in ICESCR and CEDAW Reporting Processes: Guidelines for Writing on Women's Economic, Social and Cultural Rights in Shadow/Alternative Reports
 - Provides a very comprehensive overview of CEDAW shadow reporting and ICESCR reporting. Overlaps with the Participation in the CEDAW reporting process: process and guidelines for writing a shadow/alternative report resource also released by IWRAW Asia Pacific.
- IWRAW 2008 Producing Shadow Reports to the CEDAW Committee: A Procedural Guide
 - This resource is frequently cited by CSOs promoting the CEDAW shadow reporting process. It provides an overview of the reporting cycle and recommendations on organising and formatting for the shadow report.
 - While very comprehensive, there is more accessible data summarised in the Participation in the CEDAW reporting process: process and guidelines for writing a shadow/alternative report resource released by IWRAW Asia Pacific.
- National Democratic Institute 2011 Political-Process Monitoring: Activist Tools and Techniques - Shadow Reports
 - Not specific to CEDAW, but focuses on shadow reports
- Women's Resource Centre Shadow and Alternative Reports
 - UK based resource –basic overview of CEDAW and shadow reporting